Welcome to your residency at Chateau d'Orquevaux.

Our mission at Chateau d'Orquevaux Artists & Writers Residency is to support artists who desire to grow and continue their journey of artistic expression. We are looking for artists whose presence will contribute to the overall experience of the other artists attending, and who are also developing skills, exploring ideas and looking for adventure.

Château d'Orquevaux traces its history to the Denis Diderot family which always had art in mind, and we are proud to continue that tradition with your presence as part of this legacy.

In Diderot's words:

"First of all, move me, surprise me, rend my heart;
make me tremble, weep, shudder, outrage me!
Delight my eyes, afterwards, if you can..."

Whatever the art form, it is better to be extravagant than cold."

-Denis Diderot: Artist, Writer, Philosopher and frequent guest of the Château (1713 - 1784)

Considered the first art critic of modern time, Diderot has influenced the way we all see art and led the way in the modernization of art by emphasizing the value of the artist as an individual. The Château d'Orquevaux Artist Residency encourages personal experience and the creative process. The residency provides an environment for the artist in their quest for artistic growth and personal expression.
